

MAKING PLANS

PART ONE USEFUL EXPRESSIONS

1. What do you plan to do tonight?
2. I am hoping to spend a few days at the beach.
3. I think I will stay at home instead of going to the movies.
4. I am planning to go to the movies.
5. There is nothing to do because we are on vacation.
6. I doubt that I will do anything this weekend.
7. What is your sister planning to do tomorrow?
8. We cannot decide what to do for the long weekend.
9. I am trying to plan for my future very carefully.
10. Would you consider going boating this summer?
11. That is a good idea for the future if there are no further problems.
12. If there is a small chance, I will go. I would like you to go with me.
13. Would it be possible for you to explain your plan to me?
14. He is willing to accept your plan without any conditions.
15. Please excuse me for a little while. I need to make an urgent call.

PART TWO MORE USEFUL EXPRESSIONS

1. What are you planning to do for Spring Festival?
What do you plan to do the on Friday?
What do you plan to do in the coming vacation?
2. I am planning to go to the amusement park.
I am planning to go to the cinema.
We are planning to take a trip to the south.
He is planning to do some laundry.
3. I am hoping to spend a couple of days at the beach resort.
I am hoping to spend a couple of days with my sister and her family.
I am hoping to spend a couple of days in the countryside.

PART THREE SITUATIONAL DIALOGUE PROACTICE

Number 1

Read the following dialogue and extend the dialogue so that Lina adds a condition to her acceptance. Use between 20 and 30 words for the extension.

Weekend Plans

Lina: What do you plan to do this weekend?

Harry: My office is having a barbeque at Lakeside Park and I've decided to go there.

Lina: That's great.

Harry: Would you like to go with me? We can bring a friend. .

Lina: Yes, I'd love to, ... but I need to back by 6pm so that I can be at a family meeting. We have to discuss my sister's wedding and I simply have to be there. (30 words)

Number 2

Read the following dialogue and extend the dialogue so that Tracy suggests an exciting holiday destination. Use between 20 - 30 words for the extension.

Vacation Plans

Tracy: Roger, let's start making plans for our summer vacation.

Roger: But our vacation is in July. It is only two weeks away.

Tracy: Two weeks is not a long time. So, we have no time to prepare to go abroad.

Roger: Well, where would you like to go?

Tracy: I think ... we should go somewhere near the coast this time. We can find a beach resort that offers a variety of water sport activities. Are you interested in something like that? (30 words)